You are invited to experience the fabulous 'one-woman show' of

Ami Williamson

There's enough variety in the talents of Ami Williamson to keep milk fresh for centuries. - SMH

Ami has created something that's not quite country, not quite folk, not quite classical and not quite pop, but an exciting mix of all of the above and more. - Sunday Arts ABC

She's toured Australia several times over. She's graduated from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and Ensemble Acting Studios. Daughter of Australian music legend John Williamson, Ami is an artist in her own right and bringing audiences to their feet! -The Canberra Times.

7pm, Saturday 19th November, 2011

Encloyed, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Optional donation: $25/$15. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org