

An evening of stories & music with the UK's master storyteller . .

Anna Conomos

An evening when folktale, fairytale and myth will come to life with spell-binding stories, songs and rhythms from across the globe.

Award winning storyteller from the UK, Anna Conomos, will take you on a once-in-a-lifetime journey where she morphs into creatures and characters of ancient Greece, Russia, Africa & beyond and where ancient tales meet the 21st century. Family entertainment not to be missed! (suitable for ages ten and onwards).

Anna will be joined by Dimitris (playing a mediaeval Greek lyre, oud) and Kyriaki (percussion).

+ Storytelling Workshop

(3.30-5pm, Sunday 17th)

Develop your performance storytelling skills in this workshop which will focus on structure, craft, vocal and physical skills and on having a lot of fun! This workshop will break down the techniques required to bring a story to life and build up your confidence to enrich your narrations in the home, at work and beyond. No experience necessary. Ages 12 upwards.

7pm, Friday 15th February, 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org