

You are invited to an evening of exciting folk music with

Chippo Days

Michael - vocals, fiddle, guitar, mandolin
Shawn - bagpipes, bass, guitar, sax, flutes, whistles
Sarajane - vocals, piano, guitar, fiddle, whistle
Graeme - bagpipes, guitar, flute, whistle

Chippo Days is the magic that happens when three former flatmates are brought together through the irrepressible charms of a folk singer and sometimes rocker from New York.

Drawing from the rich traditions of Irish, Scottish & English folk, American Old Time music, gospel, a touch of bluegrass, the blues, jazz, Australian bush music, a bit of good ol' rock n' roll, and their own original songs and tunes, Chippo Days brings a fresh & modern sensibility to the folk & roots sounds.

7pm, Sat. 16th Nov 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
