

You are invited to an exciting evening of folk music performed by

Chippo Days

Chippo Days is the magic that happens when three former flatmates are brought together through the irrepressible charms of a folk singer and sometimes rocker from New York.

Drawing from the rich traditions of Irish, Scottish & English folk, American Old Time music, gospel, a touch of bluegrass, the blues, jazz, Australian bush music, a bit of good ol' rock n' roll, and their own original songs and tunes, Chippo Days brings a fresh & modern sensibility to the folk & roots sounds.

7pm, Saturday 16th November 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org