

You are invited to an intimate evening of music with . . .

Cliona Molins Anthony Woolcott Rosie McDonald Fiona McVicar

Folklore brings together four fine musicians from such well respected bands as Jiggery, Triantan, RAPT and Mothers of Intention. Together they explore the songs and music of the folk tradition from Ireland, Scotland, England and the celtic diaspora . Exquisite instrumentation with Para celtic harp, fiddle, viola, bouzouki, guitar, bodhran and sweet four part harmonies brings new life into the ballads and tunes of the tradition.

Since forming in 2011, they have supported legendary Irish musician Andy Irvine & Rens van der Zalm and played at the Illawarra, Cobargo, Turning Wave, Glen Innes Celtic and Northern Beaches Music festivals.

7pm, Saturday 19th Oct 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an intimate evening of music with . . .

Cliona Molins Anthony Woolcott Rosie McDonald Fiona McVicar

Folklore brings together four fine musicians from such well respected bands as Jiggery, Triantan, RAPT and Mothers of Intention. Together they explore the songs and music of the folk tradition from Ireland, Scotland, England and the celtic diaspora . Exquisite instrumentation with Para celtic harp, fiddle, viola, bouzouki, guitar, bodhran and sweet four part harmonies brings new life into the ballads and tunes of the tradition.

Since forming in 2011, they have supported legendary Irish musician Andy Irvine & Rens van der Zalm and played at the Illawarra, Cobargo, Turning Wave, Glen Innes Celtic and Northern Beaches Music festivals.

7pm, Saturday 19th Oct 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an intimate evening of music with . . .

Cliona Molins Anthony Woolcott Rosie McDonald Fiona McVicar

Folklore brings together four fine musicians from such well respected bands as Jiggery, Triantan, RAPT and Mothers of Intention. Together they explore the songs and music of the folk tradition from Ireland, Scotland, England and the celtic diaspora . Exquisite instrumentation with Para celtic harp, fiddle, viola, bouzouki, guitar, bodhran and sweet four part harmonies brings new life into the ballads and tunes of the tradition.

Since forming in 2011, they have supported legendary Irish musician Andy Irvine & Rens van der Zalm and played at the Illawarra, Cobargo, Turning Wave, Glen Innes Celtic and Northern Beaches Music festivals.

7pm, Saturday 19th Oct 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org