

You are invited to an evening of music with . . .

Folklore

Cliona Molins Anthony Woolcott Rosie McDonald Fiona McVicar

Folklore brings together four fine musicians from such well respected bands as Jiggery, Triantan, RAPT and Mothers of Intention. Together they explore the songs and music of the folk tradition from Ireland, Scotland, England and the celtic diaspora. Exquisite instrumentation with Para celtic harp, fiddle, viola, bouzouki, guitar, bodhran and sweet four part harmonies brings new life into the ballads and tunes of the tradition.

7pm, Saturday 19th October 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. For information & bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org