

Humph Hall

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now part of the private home of Gial Leslie and Wayne Richmond. Humph Hall is used as a rehearsal and performance space for Loosley Woven (looselywoven.org) as well as other community activities such as:

- house concerts - unplugged (no PA) performances by local & international artists.
- film screenings - hard to find films &/or films that are more fun to watch in a social context
- art exhibitions - local artists & craftspersons
- community 'live-to-air' concerts - broadcast on Radio Northern Beaches (88.7 & 90.3FM).
- student showcase concerts
- ??? - any other ideas?

You can see details of upcoming events at the Humph Hall web site: humphhall.org

For more info contact:

Wayne Richmond
85 Allambie Road
Allambie Heights NSW 2100

(02) 9939 8802
(0400) 803 804
wayne@humph.org

Seats approximately 100 people with potential for flow-over into dining area.

