

An evening of hauntingly beautiful music . . .

Josefina Paulson

Josefina Paulson is an award winning Swedish folk musician who plays the nyckelharpa or 'keyed fiddle', a traditional stringed instrument.

She embraces the instrument's many possibilities, from the roots of the Swedish Uppland tradition, to its large crown of new influences from other cultures.

A very different musical experience and one ideally suited to the beautiful acoustics of Humph Hall! Not to be missed!
