

You are invited to an hilarious performance of ...

7pm, Friday 22nd June 2012

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Martin Pearson presents a lovingly irreverent re-telling of The Lord of the Rings, interspersed with songs. The story sections tend to switch among pointing out the logical inconsistencies & plot holes of the story, highlighting the differences between the book and the movie, and sometimes just careering off the rails, depending on what is funniest at the time.

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an hilarious performance of ...

7pm, Friday 22nd June 2012

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Martin Pearson presents a lovingly irreverent re-telling of The Lord of the Rings, interspersed with songs. The story sections tend to switch among pointing out the logical inconsistencies & plot holes of the story, highlighting the differences between the book and the movie, and sometimes just careering off the rails, depending on what is funniest at the time.

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an hilarious performance of ...

7pm, Friday 22nd June 2012

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Martin Pearson presents a lovingly irreverent re-telling of The Lord of the Rings, interspersed with songs. The story sections tend to switch among pointing out the logical inconsistencies & plot holes of the story, highlighting the differences between the book and the movie, and sometimes just careering off the rails, depending on what is funniest at the time.

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org