

The Perch Creek Family Jugband

are back!

As seen on ABC TV's
Spicks & Specks!

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

7pm, Thurs 15th Dec 2011

Brought up busking til the wee hours on the rowdy streets of the Gold Coast, the Perch Creek Family Jugband learned to use their voices & multi-instrumental talents to pull a crowd & keep them there! Now, they regularly play festivals including Woodford, Mullum and Tamworth. In 2010 they appeared on the ABC TV show Spicks & Specks before jetting off to Europe for a three-month tour. Their repertoire roves from bluegrass and old-time jazz to country blues + anything else they fancy!

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Opt. donation: $25/$15 Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org
