

An afternoon of music & yarns from the 'Hudson River Balladeer' . . .

Rick Nestler (US)

A Coast Guard licensed Master, with a 100 ton ticket, an actor, a singer & a songwriter, Rick can truly bring the songs of the sailor (both traditional & contemporary) to life. He's appeared at folk festivals & coffeehouses throughout the Northeast of the US as well as low waterfront dives & institutions of higher learning from St. Thomas to Toronto, California to New York & everywhere in between. One of his songs, 'The river that flows both ways' has been recorded by both Joe Heukerott and his friend Pete Seeger.

3.30pm, Sunday 3rd February, 2013

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org