

You are invited to an evening of music & mayhem performed by the

Wheeze & Suck Band

The Wheeze and Suck Band are a five piece group featuring guitars, mandolins, fiddle, melodeons, percussion and vocals, performing an exciting mix of traditional, contemporary and original 'roots' music.

These costumed 'mad hatters' sing rousing sounds and soulful ballads in exquisite four part harmony and play high energy instrumental dance tunes which often leads to audience participation & revelry.

The 'Wheezers' are a favourite at major folk festivals & clubs across Australia. Two of the original songs from their 4th album 'Elsie Marley's Mates' made the finals at the MUSICOZ song writing awards in 2004/05. The Wheezers are bound to blow the roof off Humph Hall!

7pm, Saturday 27th Aug 2011

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an evening of music & mayhem performed by the

Wheeze & Suck Band

The Wheeze and Suck Band are a five piece group featuring guitars, mandolins, fiddle, melodeons, percussion and vocals, performing an exciting mix of traditional, contemporary and original 'roots' music.

These costumed 'mad hatters' sing rousing sounds and soulful ballads in exquisite four part harmony and play high energy instrumental dance tunes which often leads to audience participation & revelry.

The 'Wheezers' are a favourite at major folk festivals & clubs across Australia. Two of the original songs from their 4th album 'Elsie Marley's Mates' made the finals at the MUSICOZ song writing awards in 2004/05. The Wheezers are bound to blow the roof off Humph Hall!

7pm, Saturday 27th Aug 2011

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an evening of music & mayhem performed by the

Wheeze & Suck Band

The Wheeze and Suck Band are a five piece group featuring guitars, mandolins, fiddle, melodeons, percussion and vocals, performing an exciting mix of traditional, contemporary and original 'roots' music.

These costumed 'mad hatters' sing rousing sounds and soulful ballads in exquisite four part harmony and play high energy instrumental dance tunes which often leads to audience participation & revelry.

The 'Wheezers' are a favourite at major folk festivals & clubs across Australia. Two of the original songs from their 4th album 'Elsie Marley's Mates' made the finals at the MUSICOZ song writing awards in 2004/05. The Wheezers are bound to blow the roof off Humph Hall!

7pm, Saturday 27th Aug 2011

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org