

City of New Orleans

(Steve Goodman - Based on harmonies by Tom Bridges)

Good morning, America how are ya?
Say, don't you know me, I'm your native son.
I'm the train they call the City of New Orleans;
I'll be gone five hundred miles when the day is done.

[N.B. Sing "Good Night" from chorus 3 onwards]

And they call me Break o' Day.

The Last Tree on Rapa Nui (Kevin Murray)

They saw it standing there,
They'd lost their chance to care,
They knew it was the last,
We must learn from their past.

I ain't afraid (Holly Near)

Rise up, to the higher power,
Free up from fear, it will devour you,
Watch out, for the ego of the hour,
The ones who say they know it
Are the ones who will impose it on you.

Rise up, hear a higher story,
Free up from the gods of war and glory,
Watch out for the threat of purgatory,
The spirit of the wind won't make a killing off of sin and satan.

June Apple (Appalachian Folk Song)

The Valley of the Waters

(W: Sonia Bennett & Denis Kevans, M: Sonia Bennett)

Leave behind, the urban sprawl and the city,
That's the grind that's wasting us away.
Stop & hear the silence, hear the silence in ourselves,
We've got a lot to share today.

Last verse:

Come with me to the Valley of the Waters,
Walk with me through the mists of time.
There you'll find all the treasures of the garden,
Free for us, till the end of time.
