

Gendarmes' Duet

Words: H. B. Farnie Music: J. Offenbach

D A7 D G D A7 D

Vl. Vc. B.

5 D A D A7

And of our selves we take good
Then lit - tle but - ter - flies we
And punch each o - ther's heads at

We're pub - lic guard - ians, bold, yet wa - ry,
Some - times our du - ty's ex - tra mu - ral,
If gen - tle men will make a ri - ot,

T. B. Vl. Vc.

9 D A D A7

care!
chase!
night,

When dan - gerlooms we're nev - er
Com - mune with Na - ture face to Pro - vid - ed that they make it

To risk our pre - cious lives we're cha - ry,
We like to gam - bol in things ru - ral,
We're quite dis posed to keep it qui - et,

T. B. Vl. Vc.

13 D G D G D

T. 8
there!
face!
right!

Or lit-tleboys that do no harm,
Re fresh'dby Na ture's ho - ly charm,
Or give to us our pro-per terms!

B.
But whenwe meet a help less wo - man,
Un to our beat then back re - turn - ing,
But if they do not seem to see it,

Vl.
Vc.

18 A⁷ D A⁷ D

T. 8
We run them in, we run them in, We showthem we're the bold Gen darmes!

B. in, we run them in, We run them

Vl.
Vc.

22 A⁷ Bm G D A⁷ D

T. 8
We run them in, we run them in, We show them we're the bold Gen darmes!

B. in, we run them in, we run them in, We show them we're the bold Gen darmes!

Vl.
Vc.